3-day coach program for teachers and coaches

This program is for you if you truly want to grow the game of golf & want to help your golfers play better golf ON the golf course. You will learn about playing skills to complement technique and physical fitness. You will learn communication skills you need to support the golfer to own their skills and be better at coaching themselves.

During this three day program you will learn the why & how of VISION54 coaching. We want golfers to play better ON the course. We believe performance in golf is influenced by the technique, state of the body, mind & emotions and even the social context and how much passion you have for the game. We believe that every golfer is unique and we want to support each golfer to discover more efficiently their best way of playing well and enjoying the game. We want every golfer to become their own best coach. This program is for those of you who share these beliefs and want to learn about Coaching for the Future. Each day will be a mixture of presentations and exercises indoors and outdoors (if weather permitting).

You will learn the 8 Essential Playing Skills in depth and our 2 Practice Essentials. You will learn and get training in listening, asking questions and giving feedback so the golfers can find their unique qualities and be their own best coaches.

Participants

Coaches and teachers of the game of golf. Coaches and teachers of other sports and disciplines are also welcome to attend, with the knowledge that the context and most of the discussions will be focused around golf.

VISION54.com

At VISION54 we have one main intention of supporting golfers to play better ON the course and ENJOY the game more.

VISION54 is a number, a philosophy, an attitude, a process and a discipline. 54 is a number and we do believe shooting 54 or lower is possible. We don't know who or when, but the point is that we believe humans are capable of doing it. It's a philosophy where we look at possibilities instead of limitations and support golfers to become their own best coaches. It's an attitude about creating a positivity bias, your past is not your future, and to always focus on things under your control.

VISION54 targets the whole person, not just the technical aspect of the game.

We look at the reality of golf and what elements influence your performance. The elements are physical, technical, mental, emotional, social and spirit of the game. To make this come alive we created the 8 Essential Playing Skills golfers need to complement their technique – Play Box, Decision & Commitment, Balance, Tempo, Tension Awareness, Emotional Resilience, Memory Storage, and Managing Self-Talk.

We believe that you have a unique strategy for playing great golf and we want you to take great care in discovering what works best for you, MY54. By doing this, you will gain clarity about your unique strategy for playing great golf, and therefore will achieve it more often.
